Deborah S Brown

JAN 13, 1948 - MAR 20, 2014

Deborah S. Brown, age 66, died on Thursday, March 20, 2014 after a courage battle with her health. Debbie was born January 13, 1948, in Salt Lake City, Utah. She was the daughter of James Henry Sweatman and Venice Simpson and was the oldest of 7 siblings. She grew up in Utah and graduated from East High School in Salt Lake City, Utah. She lived for periods of her adult life in Washington, Alaska, Alabama and Montana, before ultimately returning to Utah. She was a stay-at-home mom when her children were young, a travel agent and eventually an executive assistant for multiple corporations. She enjoyed listening to Christian music, laughing, reading, cooking, fishing, camping and being with her friends and family. Debbie will forever be remembered by her beloved children Daniel & Melanie, her treasured grandchildren Nathan, Johnathan and Hannah, her brothers Jimmy & Mark and sisters Donna, Connie & Candy, along with countless other friends and family, who were blessed to have known her. She was preceded in death by her parents and sister Cindy. Debbie touched the lives of many people with her smile and generosity and maintained her quirky sense of humor all the way to the end. Relatives and friends are welcome to attend a small, informal reception, held from 12:00 p.m. - 4 p.m. Monday, March 24, at the Lakeside Adult Community Apartments, in the Clubhouse, 1580 West 3940 South, Salt Lake City, Utah. The family requests in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the charity of your choice in Deborah Brown's name.

Words cannot express how I feel. My friendship with Debbie began in Montana over 30 years ago. Our lives stayed connected despite the fact thousands of miles came between us. The phone kept us connected, time stood still. We shared a special, loving friendship. I've just learned of her passing, my heart is broken. I find peace in knowing she is no longer in pain. I will miss you my dearest friend. I will cherish the memories we made...she taught me how to drink coffee! I offer my deepest sympathy to Melanie and Danny, all of her family and her beloved grandchildren that she loved so dearly. Heaven has received a beautiful, tall angel in the earthly soul we knew as Debbie. " A few more miles have come between us my friend but, I will see you again". I pray for peace and strength for all of us she leaves behind! Forever in my heart.
