Boneta Darlene Campbell

SEP 16, 1927 - JAN 10, 2011

Boneta (Bonnie) Campbell, 83, passed peacefully into the loving arms of God, January 10, 2011 at Aspen Care Center in Ogden UT, of natural causes. Bonnie Campbell was born on September 16th, 1927 in Provo Utah. After graduating from Provo High School and attending a year at BYU she met Garn Campbell, a returning Navy veteran from WWII and was married 18 months later on May 15, 1948. Along with having four boys she was a foster mother to many new born babies and has always loved her 16 grand children. Bonnie spent her life in the service of others and church. After her husband's second enlistment in the Navy and much travel in various parts of the world, they retired from San Diego to North Ogden to continue their new adventures. Bonnie is survived by her four sons, David, Randy, Chris, and Glenn and is further survived by many grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and many loving friends. She is now reunited and at peace with her beloved husband Garn. Her funeral service will be held 11:00 am, Saturday, January 15, 2011 at the 9th Ward, Ben Lomond Stake, 3100 North 575 East, North Ogden, UT where friends and family will gather prior to services at 9:30am for their final farewells.
