Fran and family, We were so sorry to hear of R.b.'s passing. I wish we could have seen him earlier. We have been remiss as a family and have let our parents and you down. We loved the times we had together at Grammys' and Grandpas' house. What fun and laughter filled the back yard during one of Dad's famous BBQ's. We so loved the time you spent with us. R.B. was always so funny, and he was one of a very few who could give Dad grief and get away with it. He will be sorely missed. A bright light in this world has gone out. I hope the Spirit of peace will fill your hearts with love and especially peace and comfort. We love you dearly, Lynn
