Helen Truman Clegg

APR 8, 1930 - SEP 27, 2012

Helen Truman Clegg, 82, was surrounded by family and friends who all loved her deeply when she passed away on Sept 27, 2012. Helen graduated from the University of Utah and worked as a nurse until she met and married John Cardwell Clegg in December 1953. They lived in Provo Utah and she spent a happy life with him. She will remain in her family's hearts, and will continue to be an inspiration and example to everyone who knew her, of how a life should best be lived. She had a lifelong passion for genealogy work. Dear "Jack"--Well, where have the years gone since our "riding the rumble seat across the furrows in the Heber fields?" I have good memories of the "good friendship of you and of Jimmy" and are grateful for you in my H.S. years. I have sometimes heard reports of you, and knew of your life and family. It was so good to read of your dear wife and wonderful family---and "read between the lines of your lives together." My husband passed away a year and a half ago. This becomes a "strange" time of feeling "that part of you is literally gone". God's blessings to you "Jack" and to your dear family. Love, Helen.

I love dear Helen Clegg and will miss her greatly. I saw her every week at the temple, valiantly serving the Lord. This is how she lived all her life and was such a great example for all who knew her. She was remarkable in her steadfastness, positive attitude and subtle humor. I loved being her visiting teacher when we first moved into the ward, working with her in Relief Society and just being her friend. God bless you all, her much loved family.

Dear Jared, Tess, and family, We are so sorry for your loss. I only had the opportunity to be around your mother a few times, but it was obvious what a wonderful person she is. We know that part of the reason you are as wonderful as you are is because of her great example and influence on you. You are loved. Our prayers are with you. Ann & Paul.
