Margaret Ann Croley

NOV 17, 2011 - JUN 7, 2011

Margaret (Maggie) Ann Staker, Croley

The love of My Life was called to heaven on June 7th 2011. Maggie was born November 17th, 1952 in Salt lake City, Utah to David and Norma Staker. Her mission in life was to be a very giving, caring and appreciative person and make everyone happy and enjoy life as much as she did. She was a dedicated and loyal employee of Camperworld for over 20 years and loved her work very much. With the success of her mission complete she joins those who preceded her in death, her parents, David (Brud) and Norma Staker; her sister, Claudia Jan Wester. She is survived he her husband, Michael P Croley; his parents, Hank and Charlene Croley; daughters, Marlene Corum and Miranda (Rick) Gennaro; brother, David (Connie) Staker; sister, Teddy Cheney; 7 grandchildren, Cherokee, Cheyenne, Cierra, Chambrea, Chaylee, Madelyn, Vincent and 1 great granddaughter, Bailey; brother and sister in-laws, John Rick Wester, Michael (Sharon) Ford, and Tim (Robynn) Croley; along with several beloved nieces and nephews. She will be greatly missed, remembered, cherished and loved by all. There will be a celebration of life ceremony to be announced at a later date and time to pay tribute and honor Maggie's wonderful life and times.

After losing Jan to cancer last year, Maggie was the rock that helped me through the worst time of my life. She was full of kindness, compassion, and spirit and she will always be in my heart, right next to her sister. The world was a better place with her; without her, there is one less bright spot. God gave Maggie to all of us, it was just a shame he wanted her back so soon.
