John Hunter Davis

SEP 17, 1931 - JAN 1, 2013

John Hunter Davis John passed away January 1, 2013 at the age of 81. He was born September 17, 1931 in Emmett, Idaho to Irvin and Myra Davis. John attended Emmett High School and BYU. As a young man he raised pigeons and loved animals. He married Geri Moline in Salt Lake City on August 27, 1975 and for a time he dabbled in Real Estate and was a landlord. He worked at the University of Utah at the registrar's office. As a faithful member of the LDS church he served in many callings, including years in the scouting program, which was his favorite calling. He helped his son Ricky sell Scout-a-Rama tickets and always sold the most. Gardening was his passion, as well as fishing, hunting and singing. He held a special place in his heart for Pretty Baby and Midnight, his dogs. John always had a joke for everyone he knew. He is survived by his wife Geri, son Ricky, and brother Sterling (Mary) of California. Funeral services will be held at 2700 South and 300 East on January 7, 2013 at 11:30 A.M. A viewing will be held from 10:00 to 11:15, prior to the service. Interment will follow at Wasatch Lawn Mortuary, 3401 Highland Drive, Salt Lake City, Utah. I'm John's first son Peter. I'm 58 now and look a lot like John in this photo. Sorry we didn't get to know each other. There is another son John Jr by another wife that is not mentioned either. Maybe the children might like contact. We could learn more about our father. I'd like that. I'm sure he will be missed. My condolences to the families at this time.
