Kelly, I finally got the nerve to read the obituary you gave me when we were there this summer. It brought back warm memories of a time long ago. Your mom was very proud of you. I KNOW your dad is smiling down on you with the same smile he had when he took me to the hospital to see you or the first time. Our love to you, Mitch and the boys.

Kelly, I am saddened to see your mother's obituary in the paper. I am an old co-worker of Fran's and used to live near her condo by the mouth of the canyon. She called me last year after several years of no contact and we tried to hook-up for lunch about 4 times but she always cancelled due to not feeling well. I wasn't sure what to think at the time. I am so very, very sorry for your loss. When we worked together you were all she could talk about. My thoughts are with you and your family.
