OCT 8, 1942 - MAR 23, 2013

Rebecca (Becky) McCleery Mackay returned to her Heavenly Home on March 23 2013 following many years of illness. Becky was welcomed into this world by her parents Donald Nephi and Joyce Cook McCleery on October 8 1942. Her parents, a niece Robynlyn and nephew Nicholas along with other family and friends greeted her in upon her transition.

Becky was a talented artist, enjoyed writing poetry, and sending cards to friends and family. She loved to sing, especially church hymns. Becky was a life long active member of the LDS Church and loved the gospel with all her heart. Becky was friendly and loved to visit. She will be missed by many.

Although her life was challenging, she is now free from the trials she endured throughout her life. Becky's passing is difficult for her family, but they receive comfort in knowing she is finally at peace. Her family wishes to thank her wonderful friends, and associates who have so willingly helped her in various ways during her journey on earth and at this time as Becky embarks upon her next journey.

04-05-13 I only learned yesterday of the passing of my friend, Rebecca Mackay. I met her at the Jordan River Temple in 1998, and we've been "phone friends" ever since. Over the years I was impressed with Becky's efforts to remain positive and faithful, despite her many challenges. My kids have grown up during the time I've known Becky, and every once in a while I would bring one or two of them with me to visit. She had a special bond with Marnie, who sent Becky cards and personal notes every week for several years. It often happened on days when I felt my life was hard, and that I could barely cope, that Becky would call for a visit. I didn't always feel like talking to someone, but I would answer Becky's calls anyway! I would be reminded of my own blessings, and be renewed in my desire to be grateful and faithful. Becky prayed for me and for my family, which was especially appreciated by us during the year-and-a-half we were out of work. I'm glad that Becky has been my friend and I'm grateful she isn't suffering anymore. I'm sure Rebecca is healthy, happy, and singing her heart out in Heaven!

Monique, Tiffanie and family.....so sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. It has been years but I have many vivid memories of her drawings and interesting blended vegetable drink concoctions. I hope your family finds peace with her passing and each other. Teresa Valdez
