Dear Monta, I have no words, only an aching and sorrowful heart for you, your family and extended families concerning your beautiful sister. Please call me. I tried to reach out to you when your father passed. I'd love to talk to you as I know you and Terry moved to Washington. You and I used to work together at First Security. You can reach me at 801/231-9117. May Jesus' love comfort you

To the Merrill/Nasworthy Family: I was so sorry to hear about Kim's passing. I will always remember her with the most beautiful smile on her face. She was so bubbly and her wonderful personality was like no other. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you. With much love and sympathy.

I will always think of the Merrill family fondly...I only knew Monta and Derick in school but God has been good enough to put Pam and Cori in my life since then....took me years to figure out they were Monta and Dericks sisters...Anyway, know that I am praying for you...I have lost family in a similar situation and it is tough....But Gods love is sufficient and Kimberly is in good hands...My thoughts and prayers are with your family! I have to work tonight so I won't be able to come to the services but I am there in spirit!
