Sorry to here about Lori's Death and I hope my Son is OK, I spoke to him several time's before she passed, I was glad to here that they talked alot and said everything they wanted to say to each other. Cody was Lucky that he had the time to spend with his Mother, most of us are not that Lucky. When someone that we LOVE passes it happens so fast that we spend the rest of our lives wishing we had just said something or did something ?? I never wanted the Divorse, She was granted it because I failed to show up. I guess now I can move on since my Vow to "Love untill Death do You Part" is over. The good book says that when you ask for another, and it is for his will, It will be granted. So I asked that all her sins be forgiven & I will carry the unforgiven sins to my Death. Cody asked me to say a Prayer for her & after I said it,I could feel her passing. Cody called me shortly after. I am a Servant of Christ, Nothing More or Less. I new the moment she was pregnant, I new she would have a Son, I new the day he was going to be Born. Sorry I can't be there, My Prayers are ther instead Take Care. D.H. Moffatt
