Samantha graduated from Horizonte High School in 1998 and worked for many years at the Salt Lake corporate offices of J.C. Penny Company. She recently began working at Columbus Community Center. The love of Samantha's life was her son, Jonathan. Happiness to her was always having a large, loving, close-knit group of family and friends. Samantha was an active member of the LDS Church. Samantha is survived by her son Jonathan Ortega, her mother Rea Ortega and step-father Frank Archuleta, grandmother Olivia Ortega, her siblings Bryan, Joey, Danielle, and Delores, sisters-in-law Charissa and Kourtney, nephews Troy, Nicholas, Juan, and Jayden, Aunts and Uncles Tony, Tina, and Troy, and many loving cousins and dear friends.
