Candy Rodriguez

JUL 27, 1955 - NOV 9, 2011

"My greatest love and princess was called up and departed into the heavens. Candy will always be in our hearts. A fantastic wife, a mother, grandmother and the greatest friend to all, she provided great love, patience and warmth. Indeed she is Candy Ann McLelland-Rodriguez. We will always remember here."

Candy I can't believe you're gone. Didn't think I'd miss you so much or be affected so hard. But I do. I know you're in a better place watching over us and I feel you around at times. I love you so much. "When someone you love becomes a MEMORY, the memory becomes a Treasure" And I do treasure all my memories of you. Thank you so much for being a part of my life and making my dad so happy. I know you loved him with all of your being. R.I.P.

J.R. I am so sorry for your loss. It is hard to write how one feels when they lose a friend as dear as she was. Even though we were so far apart, we were as you know, sisters, best buds and friends always. She loved you more than you know, she bragged about all the stuff you had done for her and given her. She knew your love for her was so deep and strong. She smiled in her voice when she talked about you, I could hear over the phone. We all will miss her laugh, her smile and everything that made Candy, Candy. I love you, Lauren

i just wanted to say thank you for everything you did to make my father happy! :-) im sorry that i didnt talk to you as much as i should have. but i thank you for bringing my dad, delanie and I back together. i can truly say it was your doing. and i thank you from the bottm of my heart! i will see you again. G-d takes the best first. We still cry today. Although we loved you dearly, we couldn't make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. G-d sometimes breaks hearts to prove he only takes the best. Jose's Daughter Sonseeahray Begay-Rodriquez
