Afton was such a great example of Christ like service. She taught me so many things I cannot begin to list them. There is no way I could ever repay the many hours of service and kindness she showed to my wonderful mother, Ruby Wilson. I always think of Afton when I am making a cake or brownies, she made me think I was doing her a big favor by licking the bowl. Her sweet spirit and kindness will be greatly missed. I can only hope that I can be as good of a neighbor and friend that she was to me.

I'll always cherish the memories of her annual Payson Parade extended family event - homemade root beer and the candy toss, so much fun playing in her back yard with cousins and wandering around their huge garden & playing old board games downstairs and watching old 8mm movies, what a joyful & loving Aunt. She is like a sister to my mom & our hearts were heavy to hear of her passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with her and the family.
