Please pardon the lateness of my memory. I had the pleasure of working with Merrill for many years at Warner Truckland, he handled fleet and I sold retail light-duty trucks. He always made me feel welcome, Merrill was always calm, collected, and a wonderful salesman. I always tried to get close when he was dealing with customers, on the phone, or in person, to learn his smooth ways of selling. I was always grateful he was willing to share. If I started the conversation about the rodeos, cowboys, horses, or bulls, I could always get his attention and I can't forget belt buckles too. He had a great smile, always kind except for those days Mike Birdzell would upset him, it was then we all knew it was time to leave the building and go outside for a while till things calmed down. I remember the nice time we had with you, Karen & Merrill when we dined up at Mill Creek Canyon, I still cherish that time. Merrill will always hold a special place in my memories and heart of someone who was a good friend and co-worker. Rest in Peace, my friend.
