NOV 20, 1919 - OCT 1, 2012

Lucile Smith Wardle passed away on October 1, 2012, at age 92 at The Residence of CareSource in Salt Lake City, UT, due to pneumonia and other issues related to age. Born in Lehi, Utah, on November 20, 1919, to Archie Ray Smith and Ruth I. Brown, the only daughter of six children. Raised in Garfield, UT, graduating from Cyprus High School in Magna, UT, Class of 1937. Attended LDS Business College. On September 15, 1941, Lucile married Donald L. Wardle in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. They were married for almost 66 years until his death in 2007. Following the outbreak of World War II, Don became an Army officer, and for the next twenty-seven years they lived where assignments took them – coast to coast in the United States and in Italy, Germany and Japan. Wherever she lived, Lucile enjoyed the diversity and culture of those she met. She served over a thousand hours as a Red Cross volunteer in Army hospitals in Germany and Virginia. She also served in many leadership and teaching callings in the LDS Church wherever she lived, including service as an ordinance worker in the Washington, D.C. Temple. Following Don's retirement from the Army in 1969, they remained in the Maryland/Virginia area for 25 years. Finally, after 52 years, they returned home to Utah in 1994.

Lucile is preceded in death by her husband, parents, infant daughter Lana Ruth, and brothers Ernest, Harold, Alden and Heber.
