Juanita Pearl Bodell Clubb

MAR 16, 1924 - FEB 27, 2015

Juanita Bodell Clubb returned to the loving arms of her husband on February 27, 2015. She was born on March 16, 1924 in Herriman, Utah to John and Pearl Bodell. She attended both South and East High School. She also attended LDS Business College. She married Walter Clubb on January 29, 1944 in Brownswood, Texas. Juanita worked as a receptionist for many years at Litton Data Systems, N L Industries, and Amax Magnesium Corp.

Juanita is survived by her three children, Bob (Elayne) Clubb, Linda (Ron) Naccarato, Larry (Ellen) Clubb, her 11 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren and 4 great great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents, husband, and brother Bryant John Bodell.

She was a loving mother, grandmother and friend and will be dearly missed. We would like to thank Ellen Clubb for all the loving care that you gave mother while she lived in your home. We would also like to give a special thanks to the following excellent hospice caregivers at A Step Forward: Jenni, Katie, Suzanne, Melanie, Tammy, Cam and Wayne.

Graveside services will be held on Thursday, March 5, 2015 for the immediate family. Interment will be at Wasatch Lawn in Salt Lake City.
