

Debra "Debbie" Ann Conk

AUG 5, 1953 - DEC 7, 2015

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary .....	Page 3
Tribute Wall .....	Page 4

Debra "Debbie" Ann Conk

AUG 5, 1953 - DEC 7, 2015

Debra "Debbie" Ann Conk, age 62, of Orem, Utah was born August 5th 1953, passed away peacefully in her home Monday, December 7th 2015.

Debbie truly lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures; chatting with friends and family, long rides into the mountains, and spending time with her grandchildren. It was the simple things around her in life that she never took for granted, commenting daily how blessed and thankful she was. Debbie was a woman of strong faith, believing in the power and strength of Gods' love and the beauty and peace that would await her after her passing.

Debbie was a wonderful wife, a loving mother, and a friend to all. With her, she carried a welcoming spirit of joy and love. She will be remembered most for turning every one she ever met into a friend. Her generosity, her pure heart, and her kind ways, were a gift to this world. She was dearly loved and will be missed beyond measure.

Debbie is preceded in death by her parents Montel and Donna Graff, and her brother Ronald. Surviving are her husband Robert "Bob" Conk of 37 years, their children; Bobi, Jeni and Ryan, her sister Vickie, her brothers; Brad, Neil, Steven, and Dale, and her grandchildren; Bryce, Kaylin, Kiaira, Phoebe, Chelsey, Molly, and Quinlee.

There will be a Celebration of Debbie's Life held on Monday, December 14th, at the Lakeridge Stake Center, 158 East 1100 South Orem, Utah 84058 from 2:00PM to 4:00PM friends and family are invited to attend.

Tribute Wall

Debra "Debbie" Ann Conk

AUG 5, 1953 - DEC 7, 2015

BA

Brittany Adams sent a virtual gift in honor of Debra.

I was a co-worker of Debbie's at Convergys I sat next to her a lot back in 2005 ish can't remember the exact year. We worked together doing eBay for Convergys. I sat next to her quite often and enjoyed her company. She was a cheerful happy person a real joy to work with. Her smile and sweet spirit was a blessing to all her co-workers. I am certain she made a positive impact on many people's lives including my own. Much love to all her family which I know she loved deeply. I vaguely remember her bragging about her family. I have many memories of her giving small trinkets to co-workers and being silly making others laugh. She laughed quite a bit too. The joy and happiness she brought to many of my stressful work days is immeasurable. I am thankful and feel very blessed to have known her.

September 23 at 4:30 PM

AD

Amanda Dahl posted:

I met Debbie back in 2010 when we were working at Teleperformance. I was instantly drawn to her bright, bubbly personality and the way she lit up the room when she walked in. I was poor, newly married and pregnant with no family around and she took me in. She never failed to put a smile on my face no matter how rough a day it was. With every call she took she stayed calm, no matter how much screaming came from the other end. I never saw her have a bad day. Not once. When I got close to my due date she threw me a baby shower knowing there was no one else that would. She showered me with gifts and the most beautiful lilacs that filled the room with wonderful scent. We would talk about family, friends, her love for her Husband, family, Heber and Savers. I could hear in her voice the love she had for them. I remember the last time I saw her. I was leaving work for the last time and she gave me a small little sterling silver ring and told me to never lose touch. Over the last 6 years I've thought of her often. The blanket she gave me for my daughter became the favorite and she carried it around for years. I have it saved in a box for her when she is older. I messaged Debbie on Facebook a few times and kept up with her updates and statuses. I looked at my timehop today and saw that 6 years ago she had posted on my wall and decides to message her and ask how she was. And then I saw she had past. My heart hurts and wishes I would have reached out a few months ago. I miss her and will forever cherish the most kind and honest woman I have ever met. I will see you again Debbie. Love you!

April 22 at 11:53 AM

Tribute Wall

Debra "Debbie" Ann Conk

AUG 5, 1953 - DEC 7, 2015

AG

Afton & Doral Graff posted:

We are going to miss Debbie and all the phone calls and chats we shared with each other. She was a ray of sunshine in our lives. Debbie and our daughter Lori were best friends growing up, they were the two cutest little girls on 1200 So. I have many pictures of them when they were small. What a GREAT example she set for us. She will be missed by all. We know there will be another Angel in Heaven. Our prayers go out for all of you and this time. All Our Love Uncle Doral and Aunt Afton.

December 11 at 6:35 PM

TG

Terri Graff posted:

I am so grateful for the privilege of knowing Debbie. I got to know her when I started dating her brother, Brad. She always went out of her way to make me feel welcome. When my children were little, whenever I couldn't find a babysitter she would fill in even if it wasn't a convenient time for her. She has a heart of gold and throughout her life has honed her skills of friendship, compassion and empathy with all those who came within her circle of influence whether at work, church or in the neighborhood. The Savior counseled us not to lay up treasures where moth and rust corrupt or thieves break through and steal but instead lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven. I am sure that Debbie never thought of that in that way but because of her kind, compassionate choices as she went through life she has laid up treasures in heaven where she has been welcomed home. To all the family, especially Bob, Bobi, Jeni and Ryan, Brad and I express our love for you and our prayers that you all might be comforted and feel the peace of the spirit. Much love, Brad and Terri Lee Graff

December 10 at 8:14 AM

TH

Toni Hurst lit a candle in honor of Debra.

We are so sorry to hear of the loss of our dear sweet cousin, Debbie. She always had a smile, laugh and hug for all. One sweet memory is when her Aunt Jan (Hurst) passed away Debbie was at the cemetery waiting for all of us and she had many Teddy Bears in her arms. She made sure every girl/woman had a bear to remember Jan with. That bear sits in our curio cabinet with all the love we had for Jan and now for Debbie as well. She was always so thoughtful. I'm so thankful that I married into a family that has such wonderful people in it. Debbie always welcomed me and we will miss the fact that she is not with us here, but we will see her again! Thanks for sharing her with us. May God bless you all.

December 9 at 3:00 PM

Tribute Wall

Debra "Debbie" Ann Conk

AUG 5, 1953 - DEC 7, 2015

Sarah Smith Karpowitz posted:

I'm so sorry for your loss, Ryan, Jeni & Bobi!! Your mom was a great lady. Love you all. -Sarah Karpowitz

December 9 at 10:40 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Debra by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit