I'm deeply sadden.. Johnny had a heart of gold! He could always make you laugh even if you were having a bad day. I was lucky to have him as a friend when I truly need one. He shared a childhood memory with me. " One day when I was a little boy my cousin started laughing and teasing me and telling me I looked funny because my eyes changed color from brown to blue. I ran away crying! " We both laughed! heaven has gained an angel! My condolences to the family. Love you always Johnny!

My how time flies! I remember going on a double date with Craig and John and his date was so snooty when we dropped her off and we left he was pretty mad but the entire time he was polite and nice ! I am so sorry for the loss of a good man ! May you rest in peace and soar with the Angels! I hope your family can see heaven in their hearts!

This picture was taken at a house party on new years eve about 30 years ago. I'm so sorry for your family's loss. My heart is broken today as I looked in the obituaries. Say hi to Wade and my bro for me. Love always Dana Noker.

My memories of Johnny were on the basketball court at his home when he was just a young kid. The last time I saw Johnny was at Weber State. He stopped by and said hello. I hadn't seen him since my high school days. I had to laugh because I remember this tall skinny kid and here he was all grown up. My sincerest sympathies to Betty, Bruce, Pat and the rest of the family. I have and always will cherish my childhood years living next to the other Italian family on Rancho Blvd. Love you guys. My brother Greg and I send our deepest condolences for your loss. Losing John is like losing a part of our soul and our history. Greg and I are all that's left of our immediate family, but we lived right next door to John Castellano on Rancho and spent a good amount of time at the Salvos. I spent more time with Johnny than Greg did and have such great memories of him growing up in elementary school, then moving on to high school. I truly thought the world of him and he was like a protector for me if things went a little wrong. I hope John is having a wonderful reunion with his dad and brother, Mike, and of course, Wade Beus. We are left with wonderful memories of John and I'm going to miss him like crazy. Regardless of any mishaps along the way, he was most definitely one of the good ones. I pray for peace and healing for your family. John, you will be missed so very much...More than you'll ever know. Much love to your family during this most difficult time. Love and prayers, Lori and Greg Nelson
