Max Roy Menlove

APR 3, 1929 - AUG 25, 2016

Max Roy Menlove died Thursday, August 25 in the comfort of his own home surrounded by his loving family. He suffered from Parkinson's Disease for over 25 years. Max was born on April 3, 1929 in Salina, Utah to Roy Alfred and Lucille Olsen Menlove.

He was married to his dearest Colleen Crandall on December 19, 1951 in the Salt Lake Temple. She preceded him in death over 10 years ago and was the first to welcome him home. He was also preceded in death by his parents and son-in-law Mike Waldram. He is survived by his 6 children, Mike (Ooma), Nena (Dana Brown), Kerry (Stan Smith), Eileen (Kevan Jensen), Marianne Waldram and Ken (Kimberly). He is also survived by 21 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren and all 4 siblings (Belva, Carol, Paul and Howard).

Max graduated from the University of Utah in Civil Engineering. He was a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity. He was part of the Naval and Air Force reserve during the Korean War and worked for Lockheed designing airplanes. He founded Menlove Construction Inc. in 1965. He was a licensed Professional Land Surveyor. As a general contractor he employed many youth in the neighborhood to work during the summers. He served faithfully in many church callings including a bishopric, but was always best known for his work as a stake and area athletic director. He ran a very high quality church athletic program back when "ward ball" was respectable. Max was a revolutionary. He loved golf, hunting, fishing, tennis and boating at Lake Powell. But what he loved even more was converting others to go and do these things with him. Many families today have a tradition of going to Lake Powell or going hunting because Max invited them years ago. The one exception would be "golfing". He did cause a few to quit. Just kidding Dad. When Max and Colleen served a mission to San Diego, they spent many P-days teaching the missionaries how to golf. Max's sense of humor was a little dry and he spoke a different language at times. If he called you “dummy”, “knucklehead” or “dingbat” it meant that he liked you. If he was fighting you for the last piece of shrimp or scoop of raspberry Jell-O salad it meant that you were in his inner circle. Most importantly it is clear to everyone that Dad and Grandpa was a very honest, hard-working, fair and forgiving individual. Max was very generous and loving when it came to helping others. We are all going to miss him deeply.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, September 3, at 11:00 a.m. in the Olympus 2nd Ward Chapel, 3070 East Nila Way (4140 South), Salt Lake City, Utah. A viewing will be held Friday from 6 – 8 p.m. at the same Chapel and on Saturday from 10:00 – 10:45 a.m. prior to the services. Interment will be at the Wasatch Lawn Cemetery. Our deep appreciation goes out to everyone at Cornerstone Health and Hospice who cared for Max in his last years. We are especially grateful to Kerry and Stan for living with Dad the past 6 years, making it possible for him to remain at home. In lieu of flowers make a donation to the Road Home homeless shelter.

Best neighbors ever growing up! Max and Colleen were the best second family a person could ever have growing up! Yes Max you could intimidate me but you never kept me from coming over and letting Colleen pamper us! I loved your family! My heart goes out to Mike, Nena, Kerry, Eileen, Marianne, and Kenny! Love Jane Seems he might be the last to go from the old neighborhood Dela Dr. All the countless hours and years I spent playing in and around his yard. Sometimes he'd intimidate me with his bark but was never afraid to be at his house. Him and his wife were my second family growing up. So fond are the memories! My heart goes out to Mike, Nena, Kerrie, Eileen and Marl Anne because you are surely going to miss him. Love you all for being a part of my earlier life, Jane Siggard Davis.

MikeAll of us at Babcock Design Group wanted to express our sympathy in the passing of Max. He was an excellent General Contractor to work with - always had the owner's end product in mind when he built. He was also a great and fun golf partner - didn't get to golf with him as often as I wish I could have. Deepest sympathy from every one at Babcock Design Group / Brent Davis and Fred Babcock.
