My dear Sweet, Kind, Loving, Caring, non-judgmental, Beautiful, big-Hearted aunt Judy, I wrote my feelings out here yesterday, and for some strange reason they disappeared (I think you took them with you to keep for yourself forever and beyond). So, here I go (once more), I want to thank you for Sharing your birthday with me, and telling me all the time that I was your best birthday present ever. This wonderful picture of you that your family has chosen is perfect, that is how I always saw you from the time I can remember up until the last time, you always had a smile on your face, even when you didn't feel like smiling. You were one to always give, and never take. I will miss your voice, your smile, but most of all, I will miss sharing our one special day a year. I will fill a little lost this next year without you here to celebrate. I hope the goddess has you enveloped in her arms filling you with all of the love from those of us who you had to leave behind and the love of those whom had passed on before you. There truly will never be anyone else like you, you were one of a kind, and I am beyond blessed to be able to call you my aunt, and have all of the wonderful memories I have of you. As long as I can keep remembering, you will never fade from me completley. Fly high beautiful angel, I await seeing you in dragonfly form. Spread those wings and soar..... Blessed be Auntie, blessed bel love you always Love Robbin

Aunt Judy, My heart is saddened that we will not be sharing another Birthday. I loved it when you would tell me I was your best birthday present ever. Thank you for letting me share so many with you, I only wish it could have been many, many more. You have always been a beautiful, sweet, kind, caring, wonderful person, always giving, never taking. I know that you are with everyone that has left us, and having a grand ol' time doing whatever you want to do. We all will miss your smile, your heart, and your beautiful soul, but we will never forget you, our love and memories of you are to bold to ever let that happen. Fly high you wonderful, beautiful aunt of mine, until we meet in a different place and time, may the goddess keep you enveloped in a loving embrace that is laced with the love everyone felt for you. Blessed be...Love Robbin

Dear Scott & Pam I just wanted to send my condolences; Judy was a special friend to my father-in-law Peter and those 2 had some great times at Bountiful Senior Center. She attended his last birthday at the Lion House and I know it was difficult for her to manage those stairs. I know how much she loved her sweet little grandbabies. May God help you find peace during this difficult time. Irene V.S.
