To the entire Sever family, my heartfelt sympathies and sincerest condolences to all of you. Dan was a good friend of mine, we had our moments, but he always knew how to cheer me up or just make me smile. I think what I'm going to miss the most about Dan is his impeccable timing. Often he would randomly post a picture of the Joker or post something completely off the wall and hilarious on my Facebook and I would always respond with a "how are you" or "long time no hear". The most ironic thing about his messages was that he was on my mind. I would often think of him, wondering where he was or what he was doing and usually, almost instantly he would contact me one way or another. The most recent was just last week. He popped in my head and I dazed off wondering how he was and sure enough I got a message through messenger. He asked what I was up to and we had a brief conversation and he closed with thanking me for being his friend and always listening. As the tears are welling up in my eyes, I feel so privileged to have had a friend in Dan. That's what I'm going to miss the most is his random hellos when I would think of him. Come visit me buddy, I'll be waiting.

I am so sorry for your families loss. My heart breaks every day. I pray for your family every night before I lay my head down. I miss him so much. I still can't get it through my head he's gone. I just wanna think he's busy traveling or just to busy to call or anything. My heart breaks for you all. 😞

I can not dwell on this too long, my loss, still torments. But for a moment until we meet again, love ya bro.

When I went to Daniels page to see why I haven't heard from him in a long time, I found this. I had no clue that he died. Daniel and I were married years ago, but so much went wrong. We caught back up with each other years later and talked non stop....there were periods where we didn't talk for a long time.... I can't believe he is gone. All I can do is sit here and cry. I am completely heart broken. Rest in Peace Love. I love and miss you every day and always will.
