

Gregory Lynn Baker

MAY 14, 1952 - FEB 8, 2017

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Gregory Lynn Baker

MAY 14, 1952 - FEB 8, 2017

G regory Lynn Baker 1952-2017

Greg's whole-life struggle with numerous illnesses and conditions of all kinds is finally over. Living alone and depending on the generosity of others, his life was long and sad...yet he managed to continue intelligently conversing with family and friends. Greg was a lover of nature, dogs, books and Coca Cola and he had empathy for Mother Earth as he watched us waste and pollute her. He chose to die at home with little assistance or love. His every day needs were fulfilled by his truly Christian neighbors Gene and Joeleen Hooper and Susan Taggert and her husband Kent. They are angels on earth.

Greg was born May 14th, 1952, attended Highland High School. He lived in the same home on Chadwick Street in Sugarhouse his entire life. May God finally grant you some peace and rest.

Tribute Wall

Gregory Lynn Baker

MAY 14, 1952 - FEB 8, 2017

MZ

Marci Zufelt posted:

Alison, Brent, and Carolyn~ I'm so sorry to hear of the loss of your brother, Greg. I would like to have known him. I'm glad he is dwelling now in peace, rest, and love. I pray that you will find peace and comfort as your mourn his loss. I, and my sisters, send our love and condolences. Marci Zufelt

March 15 at 5:43 AM

ST

Steve Taggart posted:

Dear Alison, Brent and Carolyn.....I was saddened to hear of your loss at the passing of Greg. He suffered much in this life but I know without a doubt that he is now at peace. My compliments on what a nice picture of him in the paper. May our Heavenly Father comfort you kids at this difficult time. I send my love, Steve Taggart

March 6 at 6:03 AM

RO

Rosemary lit a candle in honor of Gregory.

March 5 at 6:33 AM

RO

Rosemary lit a candle in honor of Gregory.

March 5 at 5:51 AM

Greg Anderson posted:

March 4 at 7:17 AM

Tribute Wall

Gregory Lynn Baker

MAY 14, 1952 - FEB 8, 2017

Greg Anderson posted:

Some observations about Greg Baker....He had his own set of talents and gifts...just like there rest of us.He was an EnvironmentalistHe was a Minimalist and lived what he believed.He may have struggled to communicate effectively all the time, but he loved people...especially if you took the time to let him into your life.He wasn't needy...and rarely asked for help.He loved animals...especially his dogsHe loved the earth and nature.He loved a good can of coca cola.He was motivated to read and was an intelligent conversationalist...especially about sports.Refreshingly, there was no question about what he was thinking...he'd happily tell you....whether you agreed with him or not.He was greatly blessed to have two marvelous compassionate and loving neighbors. Jesus teaches us that the one true way to show Him love is to love and serve others....and especially those who who may not be the easiest to love. Gene and Joeleen and Susan and Kent...thank you for loving and serving him these many years!In the Book of Mormon, Alma is giving advice to his son Corianton...and he teaches him some important lessons about mortality and immortality. He taught...11 Now, concerning the state of the soul between death and the resurrection—Behold, it has been made known unto me by an angel, that the spirits of all men, as soon as they are departed from this mortal body, yea, the spirits of all men, are taken home to that loving God who gave them life.12 And then shall it come to pass, that those spirits arrive in a place which is called paradise where they will find a state of rest and a state of peace... a place where they shall rest from all their troubles and from all care, and sorrow.I know that today Greg is in this peaceful place surrounded by others who love him...and hopefully a few dogs too. I pray for God's blessing on him.

March 4 at 7:17 AM

Francine March 6 at 12:30 AM

I had to look up this obit to see if anyone had kind words...thank you for yours..I never knew him...whoever wrote the obit..wow...it's sad...there must be some story...I hope he is happy wherever he is...makes me want to hug the living you know..... Love and light

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Gregory by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit