Jeffery Hart Laws

OCT 1, 1956 - MAR 11, 2017

Jeffery Hart Laws born 10-01-1956 passed 3-11-2017. Jeff was a man of great talent and had a passion for many things. The he loved most without a doubt was seeing his sons and grandchildren.

Jeff had a great love for technology. He was always trying to see and test the latest computers, phones, and video games. This drive helped shape his career. He started his Technology Career with Iomega supporting their computer storage solutions. After spending many years at Iomega he got an opportunity with Access where he helped to support the PC games they developed. After working at Access for a few years he left and joined Sorenson Media supporting their video streaming services. Later he would join Market Star in their Mobile Phone division supporting Sony Ericsson and LG phones. Towards the end of his career, he worked for Tele performance providing technical support for the Google Play Store.

Graduated from Ben Lomond High and served an LDS mission to Roanoke Virginia, was married and 3 sons. They were the light of his life. He had a wicked sense of humor and always kept those around him laughing.

He was very kind and big hearted when it came to helping those around him. He made many friends during his stay at Our House assisted living. Many thanks to the staff for the great care given to him. The family would like to thank his Hospice and Caregiver she was fabulous.

Jeff is survived by his 3 sons – JD, Casey, and Chad and survived by 2 granddaughters – Aubrey and Ashlynn.

Jeff and I were married for 12 years, his world revolved around our boys. He was a very dedicated father and that continued through out his life. When he worked for Iomega his office was on the end of the building that faced Hillfields runway, when ever we would go pick him up he always took the time to explain to the boys what kind of aircraft was coming or going and what it's job was in the Air Force. He loved taking his boys to airshows, and new all kinds of facts about the air craft they would see. He'd explain to the boys what is's job had been when it was in the service, I think his favorite stories were about the Spitfire, and the Battle of Britain. Jeff was always ready to serve other people and included his boys in those activities. He was kind and had a heart as big as the moon, we will all miss his funny sense of humor, I have a great deal of peace knowing his now out of pain and with the rest of his family on the other side. I am certain it was a joyful reunion. Susan Mecham (Laws)

He was my uncle. He was also my friend and brother. He was from the Ben Lomond High School class of 1975. Jeff had a stroke 3 years ago and then developed diabetes. He had been in assisted living and long term care facilities since his stroke. Jeff was a husband, father, son and brother. He is survived by his 3 sons, 2 granddaughters, 2 sisters and two cats. Even though he was my uncle we were only a few years apart and therefore we were more like brothers. He served an LDS mission to Virginia and held several callings in his wards. He spent most of his career with IOMEGA and traveled the world for them setting up their trade shows. Oh how I wish Jeff and I were kids again playing in the front yard on Maxfield drive at the top of 9th and throwing small parachute soldiers in the air and watching them float back down....and laughing.
