

Lloyd William Harris

DEC 7, 1944 - APR 8, 2017

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Lloyd William Harris

DEC 7, 1944 - APR 8, 2017

Lloyd William Harris returned home to our Heavenly Father after battling an aggressive form of cancer, on April 8th, 2017.

Lloyd was born on December 7, 1944 in Provo, Utah to Seldon and Alice Harris.

He is survived by his loving wife Susan of 46 years and his 5 children: Julie (Tom) Hardman, Mindy (Matt) French, Matthew (Sarah) Harris, Shauna (Ben) Jones, and April Harris. He also has 13 grandchildren and counting. He has many more family and friends who will greatly miss him.

He lived a full life in which he enjoyed spending time with family, camping, hunting, fishing, scouting, and gardening. He was a hard worker and could fix just about anything. He served an LDS mission to the Central States Mission in 1964 and served in many church callings, including callings in several bishoprics, Sunday School President and several enjoyable years as a Scout Master.

A viewing will be held on Wednesday April 12, 2017 from 9:30-10:45 am with funeral services immediately following at the Bountiful Barton Creek Ward 640 S 750 E Bountiful, Utah. Interment will follow at the Bountiful Cemetery, 2224 S 200 W Bountiful, Utah 84010. He will be greatly missed, and his family and friends look forward to seeing him again.

Tribute Wall

Lloyd William Harris

DEC 7, 1944 - APR 8, 2017

John Glover posted:

I am John Glover a security officer at the City and County building. I have know Lloyd for about 9 years. We talked about elk and hunting. Lloyd wanted me to ride my horse and go find elk and put a GPS tracker on them so he could find them later. We also played jokes on each other, Lloyd enjoyed that. Lloyd I put a tracker on a herd of elk yesterday they should be easy to find. Will miss you.

April 13 at 7:43 AM

John Glover posted:

I am John Glover a security officer at the City and County Building. I have known Lloyd for about 9 years. We talked about elk and how he wanted me to ride my horse and find the elk and put a GPS tracker on them so Lloyd could find them again. I put a tracker on some elk yesterday Lloyd they wont be hard to find. Miss you.

April 13 at 5:39 AM

MF

Mindy French posted:

I love you dad and miss you so much! I wish we could have had more time with you but to be honest we never would have been ready to say good-bye. Let's say "until we meet again" instead.

April 10 at 8:09 AM

Tribute Wall

Lloyd William Harris

DEC 7, 1944 - APR 8, 2017

TE

Thomas Eatchel posted:

April, My memories of your father are ones in which he showed true care and love for you as his daughter. I remember all of the projects he helped you with when you'd bought your home yet how heartbroken he was to have you move out of his home to get your own. I remember he always enjoyed when you'd return home to spend time with him and would never want you to leave. I know he was always happy when you were able to make the family trips and do things as the family. I know he always made it a point to photograph the family events and create lasting memories at those. I know he did his best to prepare your family for a good future financially by helping you all get into good careers and was happy to see you all get your own homes. He did what he could to make sure you had all the things in life that you'd need to continue on and be a success. I know he tried to save and build some good sources of income for the retirement years that he'd hoped to spend with your mom and the grandkids. I feel saddened that he was unable to live up to his desires with regard to that. His heart was one of love and concern for his family and he did his best to make sure that you all were well taken care of and had great futures ahead. I know he loved you each and will miss the experiences he'd hoped to continue having with you each but there must have been greater reasons to be called home that you understand at this point. His cancer was aggressive and despite your best attempts, there was nothing you could do to reverse its course with him. He lived a good life and you will have better to share with him into the eternities I'm sure. With love and concern, Tom Eatchel

April 10 at 7:26 AM

SD

Sherry Hill Danielson posted:

Lloyd saw us struggling with our snowblower one day when it wasn't working and he came right over and cleared our driveway. What a great neighbor!

April 10 at 7:14 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Lloyd by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit