Russell John Maynes

Russell John Maynes
February 4, 1945 – June 23, 2017
South Jordan, Utah

Russell finished his earthly mission and passed away peacefully in his home on Friday, June 23, 2017 after a long battle with illness. He was born on February 4, 1945 to John Alexander Maynes III and Jeanne Walters.

Russ grew up in the Salt Lake Valley with the mountains as his playground. He loved hunting and fishing with his dad and brothers and had a great love for the outdoors. He loved to learn, was an expert chess player, and a great cook. He was a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and fulfilled a mission to the New England States. He attended the University of Utah where he met his eternal sweetheart Ruthie. They were sealed in the Salt Lake Temple on August 30, 1968. Russ was a Green Beret and Paratrooper in the Utah National Guard, 19th Special Forces Airborne Unit.

Russ worked hard at everything he did. He was an ironworker and made the staircase for the Trolley Square Tower in Salt Lake City, Utah, he owned his own carpet cleaning business, and worked for the LDS Church for over 23 years. He valued the blessings that come from hard work and passed that down to his children. He enjoyed his life and spent it working, playing and serving; doing the things he loved with the people he loved. He found and created the fun in everything he did. His smile and cheerfulness were contagious and was famous for his silly songs. He was known affectionately to his grandkids as Grampa Russ or the Tickle Monster. He set high standards for himself and his family and loved watching his children and grandchildren grow in the gospel, develop their talents, learn, and achieve their goals. His life was full of the love for the Savior and his family and spent his time serving them both.

Russ and Ruth are a great team. When my husband and I moved to Daybreak we didn't have a lawnmower and when Russ and Ruth heard about it Russ mowed our lawn. That was the beginning of a great friendship! We will miss you Russ. - Jeff & Suzanne Peterson

Maynes family, So sorry for your loss. Your father touched many lives in my family. My mother and father knew Russ and he performed work for them many times. Russ also did multiple jobs for my sweet aunt. He became a friend to them all through his work. Russ and Ruth were friends to Terry and I and my sister Becky and both in law, Craig. He was an honest Hard working man and a great family man as well. He was a great example of a true Christian and did his best to live according to his beliefs God bless you all and may you find comfort and peace in the coming days. Love to you all!!
