To Joyce's family, I can only say Thank You to Joyce, your wife and mother, having been a saviour in supporting me during my custody battle in difficult circumstances during 1990. She was for me a true warrior and she gave her valuable time with such kindness and love allowing me to spend my time together with my daughter in the UK. I am so sad we lost touch but I have never forgotten her as I am sure you have not. with love Jeanette and Nicole

I can't believe Joyce is gone from our lives. She was smart and always "present" when she was with you. She was a great listener and had well thought through advice. Joyce was fun and loved to learn and try new things. She really cared about and loved her family and friends; that was always evident. She is greatly missed. We have to think of how Joyce would like us to continue in a world without her; we have to keep living and learning and loving those around us because that is what she would want us to do. For her sake, I am glad her suffering is over. Rest In Peace , Joyce. You will be in our thoughts and hearts forever.

We always will remember Joyce's warmth, kindness, and graciousness. We are blessed to have gotten to know her and the wonderful Young-Hagan family through the exhilarating and happy years when our son, Greg, was on the high school crew team with Alex and Sam. As president of Friends of Greenwich Crew, Joyce was a great listener and a great leader. Tom, Alex, and Sam, we are sure that Joyce's gentle spirit will remain with you always, and we will keep you in our prayers. With deepest sympathy, Janice, Gary, Jenny & Greg Riddell

Joyce was such an amazing and lovely person. I had the privilege of working with her. The day I found out I could get married in Utah (the first day it was made legal), she was the first person I told that I was running off to the courthouse. She gave me a hug and a congratulations right then and there. I still feel her warmth and kindness whenever I remember that moment. She will be dearly missed.

Dear Tom, Alex and Sam, I am so very sorry to hear of Joyce's death. I remember her fondly as a warm, friendly neighbor on Highview Avenue. She often stopped to chat on the front lawn and talk about news of the Greenwich PTA, League of Women Voters and our dogs. One memory I think of often is when she gave our daughter a children's book no longer needed by the Hagan household. Joyce thought Nicole would especially enjoy the book and she did. We read "The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe" many times and always thought of Joyce, so generous and kind. She will be missed, Margaret Morrison

Joyce was such a treasure. Her smile, her gentle spirit lit up a room. She was my pledge Mom in college and took me under her wing right away. I'm only sorry I didn't see her more the past few years. In my heart she was always there, though, as she will continue to be in all of our hearts. Deepest condolences to Tom, Alex and Sam.
