Jillynn "Jill" Heap Stapley

JUL 3, 1962 - NOV 7, 2017

Jillynn (Jill) Heap Stapley was born July 3, 1962 to Donald Alden and Maradene Besendorfer Heap in Bountiful, Utah. She passed unexpectedly in her sleep on November 7, 2017. She grew up in Bountiful alongside siblings D. Cary Heap and Jan Cobbley, graduating from Viewmont High School and Seminary.

She met her soulmate Ernest Russell Stapley and they were married September 28, 1984 in Bountiful, Utah. They were sealed in the Salt Lake Temple in October, 1985. They lived in Pocatello, Idaho, and North Salt Lake, Utah, before settling in Sandy, Utah. Jill and Ernie were blessed with five boys: Wesley (Kristal), Shane (Channing), Carson (Danielle), Bennett and Parker. She had a close relationship with nephew Jacob Cobbley, who spent a great deal of time in the Stapley home growing up. Jill was a wonderful wife and mother, who not only supported her family, but showed love and compassion to each member. She enjoyed her three daughters-in-law and was happy to welcome them as her own. She has been a very special "MeeMaw" to her five little grandsons, Rykin, Malcolm, Hunter, Simon and Rowan. She showered love and affection on them, and they never parted without her saying that she loved them "No number that high!"

Jill had a great work ethic and most recently worked for over a decade in a position with the Bank of American Fork in Sandy. She loved her job and established a close friendship with her fellow employees. She welcomed all with a sunny smile and she showed unconditional acceptance of everyone. She was truly a "People Person".

Jill was a life-long member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, serving in several positions of responsibility. She had a special love for the young women in her Ward and Stake and imparted a feeling of loving acceptance for all of them. She had a special energy and enthusiasm that was contagious. She leaves behind family, including many Aunts, Uncles, cousins, and their families, along with many friends who share in her passing. She will be missed. We love you NO NUMBER THAT HIGH!!!

Jill will be missed. My kids and I always had fun with her when she worked at Reams. The kids just wanted to see her, so we always had to choose her line. Clark thought she lived at Reams. When Clark was in heart failure and awaiting a heart transplant in 2004 and 2005, Jill would cheer him on and encourage him when saw him. He just loved her. She was a blast at girls camp and we all loved to see what shenanigans she would come up with, especially during the skits. I can just see her up there in heaven enthusiastically taking on whatever calling they have for her up there. See you there in a few years Jill. You were a fun person and you were loved by many. I loved the couple of times when our hubbies got home, and the kids were all asleep, Jill and I went to Wendy's where she taught me how to play moncala over a frostie and fries. She was such a great friend who's support gave me the strength to face many hard times. She was such a light for me and my children. Love and miss you sweet friend!
