Jean Bagley Lloyd

2/8/27- 1/2/18

Our wonderful mother and grandmother (Myrtle) Jean Bagley Lloyd passed away peacefully at her daughter's home in West Jordan, Utah on January 2, 2018. Jean was born on February 8, 1927 in Murray, Utah to Cyrene Neff and Martha (Davidson) Bagley whom she adored.

Jean's childhood was spent in Cottonwood during the school year and at Callao, Utah during the summers where her family owned and operated a sheep and cattle ranch on the Pony Express Trail. Jean graduated from Granite High School and attended Utah State University before graduating from the University of Utah.

She married Harvey Lloyd in the Salt Lake LDS temple on June 3, 1950 and they enjoyed 66 years of marriage. They spent their first 11 years running the family farm in Central, Idaho. They then made their home in Cottonwood (Holladay), Utah. She was a favorite school teacher and taught in Sugar City, Idaho, at Granger High and for many years at Bonneville Junior High. Her favorite subjects were Speech, Drama, Journalism and English.

Jean was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. She had steadfast faith and unwavering testimony of the Gospel of Jesus Christ that guided her everyday life and which she bore frequently through word and deed. She was a talented cook and could whip up a delicious meal on the spur of the moment. She enjoyed hosting family, church and neighborhood parties featuring homemade ice cream, homegrown raspberries, scones, and crepes. She was optimistic and her positive attitude was infectious. She loved the arts, opera and the theater and sang while working around the home. She enjoyed her retirement years traveling with Harvey, tutoring refugees in English and making quilts for friends, family and others in need. Her children and grandchildren were the joys of her life and she loved serving and having

Aunt Jean lived next door to us. I have so many happy memories of her and her family. She was a dramatic reader and we loved to hear her read stories to us which she often did. We often hiked together up at grandpa's property in Big Cottonwood Canyon. She was such a joy to be around. I especially enjoyed her home made ice cream and unlimited fresh strawberries that she shared with the neighborhood and with her teacher friends from school. She was kind and so happy. Aunt Jean, we love you and anticipate a happy reunion with you some day. You certainly graduated with honors. -- Your nephew, Stan

I have been privileged to know Jean (and Harvey) since 1981. My two oldest daughters were in her drama classes at Bonneville Jr. High. My girls loved Mrs. Lloyd and as I came to know her (Harvey and I worked together) I soon knew why she had so favorably impressed my daughters. She was pleasingly blunt and could sport a twinkle in her eye that would temper the meanest of hearts. I spent many hours in their living room just talking about life and it's foibles. It was a privilege to know them both. May God bless Jean's family at this difficult time.
