Thanks for being a great human being to us throughout the 24 years we've known one another! The love will remain the same throughout time and space. We know you're just in the next room laughing and smiling. May your body rest and your soul be free from it all. See you later alligator

I still can't believe it's true. David, I've known you since the 90's you looked after me like a little sister back in the day! All the nights we partied! We drank, and we ate some really good food! I miss those days. You truly were a great friend and I'm going to miss you. Monique Spillers
