Bonnie Jo Crockett

MAR 20, 1934 - MAY 22, 2018

Bonnie Jo Grigsby Ward Crockett, 84, our beloved, mother, sister, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully in Orem, Utah on May 22, 2018 surrounded by family. Bonnie was born to Lewis David Ward and Mary Marguerite Walker on March 20, 1934 in Greenbrier, West Virginia. She grew up in West Virginia on Orient Hill, of which her grandpa Walker owned several acres. She had many wonderful memories of living next to aunts, uncles, and cousins. She met her beloved husband, Richard Lewis Crockett in 1955 and later married on August 26 1956 in Yuma Arizona. Bonnie, Richard, Kathleen and Nick were sealed for time and all eternity in the Laie, Hawaii temple on December 17, 1966. Some of her jobs included waitressing, being a foster mother to many children, telephone operator in Washington DC and San Diego, and Nurses Aid. Her beloved role though, was that of wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She loved her family and they in turn loved her.

She served faithfully in many auxiliaries in the church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints. She loved her mission with her sweetheart, teaching the people of Vancouver, British Columbia. Throughout her life, she shared her time, love, and resources to bless others and made friends wherever she and Richard went. She will be remembered for how she loved others by serving and socializing with them and her happy disposition.

She is survived by her sister, Louvertia Ward Warner of Maryland, James Luther Taylor (half brother) of Missouri, Pauline Marie Taylor (half sister) of West Virginia, her daughter, Kathleen Marie Crockett Raney, son-in-law James Raney, her son, Nick Crockett, daughter-in-law Andrea Godbold Crockett, and grandchildren Chris and Chelle Raney, Kyle Raney, Collin and Makelle Raney, Katelyn Raney, Joshua and April Crockett, Courtney and Jake Tipton, Jordan Crockett, Nicholas Crockett, Jacob and Kaitlyn Crockett, Bradley Crockett, and great grandchildren Sienna, Coen, Ellory, Ryker Raney and Cole Crockett

I met her husband Richard and their two kids, Kathleen and Nick. They ride our bus to school. They visited our home alot. Ms. Bonnie was a very sweet very welcoming lady. I spent alot of time in their home. Watching her cook, listening to her advice to me as an up n coming teenager. I grew to love her. She has always been so nice to me. I'm thankful I got to know her.

Just thinking of my great aunt Bonnie makes me smile and chuckle :). She was so loving and fun. Never a dull moment with her, and she'll never be forgotten. I loved hearing her stories about her and her husband and my grandparents doing things together when they were young. Xoxo, Lora
