Gladys Colleen Rowley

APR 25, 1926 - JUN 5, 2018

On the evening of June 5, 2018 our beloved mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend, Gladys Colleen Stowe Rowley passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones.

Gladys (the third oldest of five daughters and three sons) was born on April 25, 1926 to Myrtle and Lyman Stowe in Black Rock, Millard County, Utah.

Gladys married the love of her life, Kenneth Merrald Rowley “Ponka”, on November 19, 1946 at Memory Grove in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Gladys is survived by her son, David Rowley (Linda), her daughter, Linda Marcario (John), Sherry Rowley, nine grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren.

Early in her life, Gladys was an active member of the LDS Church and served as a second counselor in Primary, as well as a Beehive leader and Sunday School chorister.

Family was of utmost importance to Gladys and brought the greatest joy to her life. She also enjoyed gardening, crocheting, collecting antiques, camping, fishing, and sightseeing while traveling around the country with her husband and family in their motorhome.

Mom, Grandma, Sister, and “Happy Bottom” – we love you with all of our hearts and will miss you. We have great peace and comfort knowing you are with Ken “Ponka” again. We’re certain he built you quite the castle.

Aunt Gladys, the memories I have of you and uncle Ken will last forever. I remember watching as that big motor home would pull up to my house on your way to Otter Creek reservoir, where you spent most of your summers landing massive trout. One of them a record holding Rainbow. I knew every time you pulled up that dad and I were going to be meeting you there. So many memories, Uncle Ken letting me drive the boat, that record fish that you had mounted. The RV was something that set the precedent for my ideal retirement. Traveling the world with the love of my life the way you did. I can picture you both now, hand in hand, all smiles, finally back together for a new adventure. Such an amazing woman, thank you for being such an exciting part of my life. Forever in my heart and head you will be, until we meet again. Love always, Ivan
