Faye Leilani Anderson Frazier Shaw 1940 - 2018

Our beloved mother, wife, grandmother and sister Faye Leilani Anderson Frazier Shaw passed away June 15, 2018 surrounded by her family.

Born in 1940 to Leland & Blanche Anderson, Faye grew up in Ephraim and Manti with older siblings Don, Shirley, Helen and Lois.

Faye attended B.Y. High in Provo where she was a cheerleader, and a contestant in the Miss Liberty Bell pageant. She graduated from Brigham Young University with a teaching degree and married Dion Rex Frazier in the Manti Temple in 1963.

Faye and Dion made their first home in Reno, Nevada where their first daughter Kelly was born. They later returned to Utah where Faye continued her teaching career and their daughters Sharon, Shirley and Nichole were born.

Faye was a super-star teacher and a fantastic mother; children gravitated towards her. She spent a stellar 26-year career at Wasatch Elementary School in Provo, Utah where she received several teaching awards. Faye's creativity transferred to her home, and her sense of fun was present with her children.

Faye was widowed in 2002, later becoming reacquainted with former B.Y. High classmate David Michael Shaw at a class reunion. They married in 2010.

Faye was active and faithful member of the LDS church, and she served in many church callings throughout her life. Faye touched the lives of many people over the course of her 77 years and many knew her to be the most giving and kind person they knew.
