Stuart James Gibbons

MAR 24, 1943 - JUL 5, 2018

Stuart James Gibbons, passed away unexpectedly on July 5th, 2018 due to natural causes. He was a beloved father, and grandfather, and friend.

He is survived by his 7 sons Phil, Russ, Joey, Aaron, Stephen, Robert, and Paul as well as their wives and their children.

Our father loved golf, boy scouts and the church of latter day saints. He also was a diehard Utah Utes fan and always wore red Utah Utes clothes. He enjoyed gardening, opera music, and poetry and he was an amazing poet himself. He spent his last years at his home where he wanted to be and was well taken care of by his daughter in law Christy.

He passed there in his home where his wife had passed. He would not leave the house they shared. Dad was a gardener and loved tomatoes. In fact he was planting tomatoes the day he passed. He will be loved and missed forever by all those lucky enough to have known him. He brought joy and kindness to the world with his compassion and gentle words. Now he is with his love his "heavens Rose" as he called our mother. They can now walk side by side because dad has his legs back and his mate at his side. And they are both now whole again. Walk together for all eternity our Angel's and we will be reunited one day in heaven. Rest well "poperroni", "pops" We love you dad.....

The Funeral Services will be at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, July 14, 2018 at the 33rd Ward building located at 1100 East 500 South. Viewing will be from 9:30-10:45 a.m. prior to the services. Interment will be at the Mountain View Memorial Estates.

Dad and I spent so much time together it's very difficult to find one special memory there are so many, We spent a lot of time up at east canyon having picnics and watching the dog's run all over. Mostly though I remember how extremely brave and strong he was through all the doctor's and wound care for year's. In all that time I never once heard him complain not EVER he always said it was a great day to be alive..... I miss his wisdom he always knew what to say to fix anything weather it was advice about the garden or cheering me up when i was mad or sad. Most girl's call there friend's when they need advice not me I always call my father in law. I miss his 9am daily wake up call's and his 11pm good night call's. Every morning for the last 6 year's he has called me and his first word's were always good morning my sunshine girl. I am so honored to have been the one to spend his last year's with him what a goofball he was every time devo whip it would come on the radio when we were driving he would start dancing in the seat. One day I came in the back door and said popperoni he thought i called him pepperoni and from that day on he called himself pepperoni in fact the morning of his passing he left me a voice mail that simply says pepperoni did call, call me back....I love you pepperoni and i will miss you dearly until we meet again. you made my life special and i will forever cherish our time together thank you for being my dad when i no longer had one and for accepting me and welcoming me into your family. rest well pop

When my husband and I first moved into the ward, I was nervous and uneasy about meeting people and making friends, but one Sunday we walked upstairs and Stuart greeted us and it made me feel at home. He told us to come on in because there was room for us. It reminded me of the Savior and how there is always room for us. We may not be perfect and feel ready or worthy to be with Him, but the Savior always has a friendly smile and outstretched arms for each and everyone of us. Stuart was that friendly smile and open arm for all. He loved all and willingly shared his kindness and testimony with all. Since that first day, I have had many opportunities to see and feel the love of the Savior through Stuart. Whether he was handing out programs or welcoming someone to an empty seat, or just ensuring others get to partake of the sacrament, he was truly a disciple of Christ. I am so glad he is finally home, but he will be greatly missed.

Sorry to here about Stuart's passing. I enjoyed many years working with Stuart and you boys when you were young men or scouts. We shared many camps together and activities and Stuart was a great Leader in Boy Scouts, and helped many boys become Eagle scouts including my two sons, Enos and Jacob as well as his own boys. I will never forget the Eagle Project at Antelope Island trimming giant trees. The river trips were great as well as the camps at Frontier and Bear Lake and all the spring and fall camp-o-rees. Many fond memories! Dwaine Beebe
