Bruce Milo Toone passed away in his sleep on July 23, 2018 at age of 67. He died of lung (COPD) and congestive heart disease.

Bruce was born in Salt Lake City, Utah on April 27, 1951 to Clyde Smith Toone and Ora Rishton. He was the 7th child and was born the first of twins. His father died when he was 6 years of age. After graduating he moved a number of times and spent many years in Atlanta where he cooked for the Salvation Army. Later returning to Salt Lake City, he earned a degree from Salt Lake Technical College in Auto Mechanics.

Bruce worked at Village Inn as a waiter for 22 years until he had to go on disability because of his lung disease.

Bruce never married, but Judy was the love of his life. He was very distraught when she died of Lou Gehrig Disease. Later he lived with his twin brother Bryan (JoLynne).
