JoMarie Fuller Lamoreaux

JAN 4, 1944 - SEP 27, 2018

JoMarie Fuller Lamoreaux - January 4, 1944 – September 27, 2018 of Farmington, UT passed away as a result of complications from Alzheimer's.

JoMarie led a very active life of service to God, her family and community. A devoted wife and mother, she raised six children and several other children at various times. JoMarie was a very strong and consistent woman of faith and believed in the benefits of education, self-reliance, hard work and perseverance. She often recited the following: "Things that we persist in doing become easier, not that the nature of the task has changed, but our ability to do has increased." JoMarie was a frugal, active doer who loved others, exemplifying the motto of "being frugal with yourself and generous with others." In addition to helping her children through their primary education, her children and their spouses have all completed undergraduate degrees and several have completed post-graduate studies. JoMarie in her younger years cut her college education short to care for her family. She returned to school after several of her children had left the house and continued her studies towards a degree in Elementary Education. JoMarie was an educator, teaching correct principles wherever she went. She enjoyed teaching children critical basic learning and life skills. Over the years, she served as a reading tutor in several school districts within multiple states and taught English to children and adults in both Brazil and Argentina. JoMarie served in multiple leadership roles within the wards and stakes of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints including: Relief Society President, Young Women's President, Primary President and early-morning seminary instructor. JoMarie with her husband Jay served a proselyting mission in the Texas, San Antonio Mission.

JoMarie is survived by her Husband of nearly 54 years Jay Max Lamoreaux, their six children and spouses, 27 grandchildren, two sisters and one brother. JoMarie will be dearly missed by all who know her. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the LDS humanitarian aid fund.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, October 5th – visitation at 1:00 p.m. and funeral at 2:00 p.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints chapel located at 347 South, 200 West, Farmington, UT 84025.

I was a recipient of Jay and JoMarie's generosity, which they each cultivated as a way of life. Their consistency in goodness allowed them to give of themselves and reflect Heavenly Father's love so clearly and brightly. I'm grateful for JoMarie's example of enduring to the end. I only knew her after she was diagnosed with alzhiemers, but I got to read to her from a few of her own journals, and her wisdom, persistence and discipleship was inspiring. Jay was the most Christlike caregiver and companion.

Jay and Jomarie were angels in our lives for the three seasons we served as trek missionaries in Argentina.As an employee of the Church, Jay also served as our kind, supportive priesthood adviser. When Jomarie found out about our musical abilities, she presented us with a Spanish LDS Hymn Book in which she had translated the title of each hymn into English to help us new, insecure missionaries.Jay and Jomarie, in every way, exemplified Christ-like love in their association with us. We're so grateful for their example. We would love to be able to attend Jomarie's service, but health does not permit it. Our love and sympathy to Jay.Ron and Eleanor LewisOrem, Utah

What a blessing Sister Lamoreaux was to me when I arrived with my husband who was starting his new job on the Church Ranch. I had a two year old and was VERY sick with a pregnancy anticipating the birth of our daughter. While our little 100 year old home was being worked on we lived with the Lamoreux's and she took such good care of us. After we moved in, somehow Sister Lamoreaux just showed up at our house at the moments I needed her. She would empty emesis basins and even take our little two year old and just clean up or do whatever was needed. How thankful I am for her caring and service over the years. We love both Brother and Sister Lamoreaux!

We had the privilege on knowing JoMarie and Jay in Argentina for a couple of months before they were transferred to Brazil. JoMarie was a saint among us and always had the same smile you see in the picture on this site.

I have always been impressed by her smile, her kindness, and good nature. I enjoyed driving her around to give her an out one time when you were away with family. I think she is a great woman and was very fortunate to have a great husband who watched over her and cared for her for so many years.
