MAY 11, 1932 - NOV 9, 2018

Jane Powell Civish Tarrance
1932 – 2018
Bountiful, UT

Our beautiful mother, grandmother, aunt & angel, returned home to our Heavenly Father on Friday, November 9, 2018. Jane was a business woman & a trail-blazer with a quick mind & a level head. Yet her kindness, generosity, sense of humor & loving nature made her a light to everyone she knew.

Jane was born on May 11, 1932 as the 2nd of 3 children to Drucilla Jones Powell Smith and John Vivian Powell. Jane grew up in Price, UT working long hours on the Powell family farm, learning to play the piano & graduating from Carbon High School. In later years, she traveled extensively with her husband—visiting most of the 48 contiguous states & lived also in San Diego & Bakersfield, CA as well as Salt Lake City & Bountiful, UT.

To the world, Jane was known as the owner/operator of Martial Arts Supplies—an establishment that provided much of the supplies to those participating in that sport, in the Salt Lake area, for nearly 40 years. However, to even more people she will be remembered much differently, for her greatest achievement was motherhood. She was considered mother/grandmother not only to her own children but to countless others—many of which she welcomed into her home for, sometimes short, sometimes long, periods of time. Jane reveled in serving her family, friends, neighbors & strangers. She was truly a “Good Samaritan” to all she met. Jane had a courageous heart & never seemed to shun taking the higher road. Some of her other loves were: making amazing Sushi, carpentry, animals, nature, music & learning.

Jane was a faithful member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. She served extensively in the Primary and Relief Society organizations as a teacher and by sharing her talent of music. She loved Brigham Young’s council “It is our duty...to gather every item of truth...” &, as

I remember coming to your house Cindi a few times in my early teens. Your mother was so kind to me. I think she knew of the hard time my family was having after the death of our dad. Fast forward 10 or so years later your mother also educated me on how to be a great step mom. My prayers are with your family. Thank you Jane, until we meet again

We will always remember your dear mother as a knowledge seeker. Several times we ran into her at programs or devotionals and thought how wonderful her thirst for truth was. It always amazed us how she kept going, even when it was difficult for her to walk, and how she figured out a way to get around. Her genuine love for all people is truly one of her great traits and a wonderful example for all. I don't think there was a task that she didn't try to accomplish. So glad we were able to rub shoulders with such a great lady. Lynn and LaNett Dial

When I was first married, I lived in a little dungeon of an apartment on South Temple and knew no one. Jane came to visit and introduce herself to me. She knew about me from Fred who was serving a mission in my homeward. She was so kind and welcoming. It was wonderful. I remember her working on Fred's and Maria's basement. I was so impressed she'd tackle that! I also have fond memories of her and Tony having a few fascinating gospel discussions. I was always so impressed with all of the things Jane would tackle. Nothing seemed to daunt her. So glad I've had the opportunity to know Jane. I know she's happy and young and healthy again. I look forward to seeing her again in the next life. I wonder what she will be doing meanwhile!

I remember Jane. I knew her when I was a child when she was our neighbor in San Diego. She was so lovely. She had a little black VW bug and used to take all us kids to the drive in movie in it. We had so much fun. Vicki and I were good friends all those years ago. I'm sorry she's gone but I know she must be in heaven and happy.
