She Is Gone

by David Harkins

You can shed tears that she is gone

Or you can smile because she has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back

Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her

Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday

Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone

Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back

Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Oh Kelcey..... dad and I got here early Monday morning and were able to take you for your last shopping trip to smiths for your raspberry cheesecake mini cupcakes. What an adventure that was. After running into the cookie display and knocking them over we proceeded to the bulk food section where you took out a barrel of granola. There was an attendant stocking when it hit the ground and spilled everywhere. So Kelcey and her sense of humor looked up at him and said "do you need my insurance card" sat there for a minute then proceeded to drive off and say PUT IT ON MY TAB! oh how I will miss your beautiful face and personality. We love you more than there are words Kelcey. Rest In Peace, spread your wings and fly 🦋.....love mom and dad.
