D avid Leon Fullmer

David Leon Fullmer was born 30 October 1928 in Springville, Utah to David John and Leila May Harmison Fullmer. He is the oldest son of four boys. He has three older sisters.

He attended Grant Elementary and Jefferson Elementary Schools. He was an active athletic person. He participated in the football team one year as full back. He was in the baseball team as second base position two years and also played short stop. He started school at the Grant Elementary when his family lived in Springville, then went to the Jefferson School when his family lived in Mapleton.

He left high school three weeks before graduating to join the United States Army. He was in Columbus, Georgia where he took parachute training. He also went to El Paso, Texas and Fayetteville, North Carolina. When he was discharged, he returned home and went back to High School and graduated.

He worked for a while for the Pacific States Pipe Company, Union Pacific Railroad and attended Westminster College. He also worked at the Rio Grande Railroad Station as a baggage helper and at Sam Slmon's I. G. A. store.

In the spring of 1951 he was called to go on a mission to France. He went from October 1951 to 1954. He served as Branch President while there.

After his mission he entered the United States Air Force. He went to the Administrative School in Cheyenne, Wyoming. After, he went to the Adjutant General School in Indiana. After completion of school he was assigned to Anchorage, Alaska for two years. Later he was assigned to Morocco,
