My Dad was always my hero. He reminded me of James Dean when I was a teenager. He was smart, charming, funny, hardworking and a great husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. Our family will miss his "Old Indian Chief" stories and his recollections of his life as a young boy and as a mischievous teenager. He loved fishing, traveling and Red Lobster. He will be missed by his family and wonderful friends. I already miss you Dad! Bonnie Thornton Meyerson

I will miss Stan he was a wonderful man. He was a great father in law. In all the years I knew him only once did I miss calling him for father's day or his birthday I will miss that. But I know that you are with other family that have gone before us and we will see you again.

I know this is hard, with so many mixed emotions. He will always be in your heart, and all the good times and memories will shine through. He now can watch over you like you watched over him. I love you and pray for your comfort.
