It is 2022 and I have been away for quite a few years. I did not know that Ann had passed away. I thought about her today as I have often during the years and decided to look her up. I was shocked and saddened to see that she and Oleen were no longer with us. It is a testament to Ann's light and love that the memory of her is still so palpable and tender. Ann did my hair for many years and I got to know her well and enjoyed knowing Oleen, Adriann, Brittini and Alexia. Such a wonderful family. I pray for their children, their spouses and grandchildren. I know they are truly missed. Their picture captures their radiant goodness and grace perfectly. I feel so blessed to have been even a small part of their lives. Carole Webber
