Patricia Diane Reeder Elarth DeYoung died Tuesday September 24th after a long courageous battle with Leukemia. She was born February 8th 1942 in Los Angeles County Hospital. She was the only child of Sara Elizabeth Hansen and Jack Milton Reeder. As a young child her parents divorced and both soon remarried. Her mother remarried Norman Elarth who raised and adored her. Her father remarried Blanche Foreman whom she also adored.

She spent most of her childhood going back and forth between her home in Los Angeles and her Nana Thelma's home in Salt Lake City where she enjoyed time with cousins, who were like siblings to her. She was the oldest of the cousins. She grew up in Monrovia, CA and loved being a California native.

Building friendships has been an important part of Diane's life. In second grade she joined the Girl Scouts, and her troop became her life long friends. They continue to meet annually for girl's trips.

She attended Monrovia Arcadia Duarte (M.A.D.) High School and was the Student Body Secretary. She attended Brigham Young University and then transferred to the University of Utah. While attending the Capitol Hill Ward she met Rulon Frederick DeYoung, the two married November 01st 1963. Together they were blessed with three children.

Diane was an amazing mother and friend to her children. She had unconditional love for all she came in contact with and instilled that trait in her children. She passed on her love of all animals to her family. She also passed on her strong work ethic and love of service. Family loyalty was key as was family togetherness. Her final words to her children and grandchildren were to always be kind and to love one another.

Diane held a variety of positions in the workforce throughout her life. She was proud to be the first ground hostess for TWA, where she assisted weary international travelers. She worked as an Diane was a voracious reader and would devour several books each month.

She loved spontaneous adventures, whether a drive to Yellowstone, a family trip to Lake Powell on a houseboat, or a visit to Disneyland. She loved a good roller coaster ride, and rode them well into her 70's with her grandchildren.

Diane was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints, where she served in various callings throughout her life.
