Ryan Kim Barrett

JUN 7, 1979 - OCT 10, 2019

Ryan Kim Barrett, age 40, passed away peacefully Thursday, October 10, 2019. Born June 7, 1979, to Jackie Kim Barrett (deceased) and Tracy Biolos. Ryan graduated Independence High School and went on to become a journeyman plumber attending the UVSC plumbing apprenticeship program. Throughout his career he worked as a plumber, pipefitter, and welder...an exceptional one at that.

Even though Ryan had his struggles, he had an amazing gift to Love and one of the kindest hearts. He instilled courage, strength, love and laughter in all the lives he came in touch with. He was an amazing father who loved his children deeply. He instilled in them to be kind, loving and respectful. Ryan loved with great passion. He was a loyal father, son, brother, and friend. His ability to care for others before himself was amazing even in the most difficult times. His optimism was contagious and his perseverance fierce.

His life will be cherished by his children Andrew Kim Barrett, Alli Jean Ward, Katelynn Mae Barrett, Jaxon Kim Barrett, Rhydenn Faith Barrett, Colby Pulley; his wife Michelle Barrett, and sisters Manni Harward, Jenny McCusker and Amy Huggard; mother, Tracy (Tracy) Biolos

May you be at peace with your brother.

A graveside service will be held at Provo Cemetery at 10:00am, Tuesday, October 15, 2019. Any fond memories stories or pictures you may have and would like to bring to share with his children and family are welcomed.

I went to elementary school with Ryan. I always remembered that adorable smile. What's crazy is that Ryan has been on my mind as of the last few weeks. I work at an elementary school and there is a little boy named Barrett. I told him that I went to school with a boy and his last name was Barrett. There's no doubt that he's been on my mind for a reason.
