Aunt Jackie, as a young boy I have fond memories of your love and kindness. You were always easy for me to talk to. Even though I hated it at the time, I am grateful for your hugs and I guess even when you and Aunt Patty would yell out "BuBuu" whenever you saw me. I smile when I think of your big baby blue convertible with the huge fins on the back. Sharon Jay

I can honestly say I am heart broken. Jackie was a great woman, she did everything she could for her children grandchildren and great grandchildren. She welcomed myself and other family members when we had nothing. Jackie was an angel here on earth but our father needed her more. I'm sorry I didn't go check on you more I love you until we meet again mom.

Jackie was such a great second mom. She took Lisa and me to drag state street when we were still too young to drive. She took us and sat through a Rod Stewart concert with two crazy screaming girls. She always picked us up when we were stupid and did what we were told not to do but we never drank and drove she always pick us up. I stopped to visit her a few months ago (so glad I did) When I knock She asked who was at her door I told her Iris she resopned I only know one person name Iris and gave me the biggest hug. I will miss you Rlp my friend until we meet again.
