Wayne graduated from Davis High and was a member of the LDS Church.

Dad was always a hard worker and was employed at many jobs in his lifetime. He had a love for cars, enjoyed fishing and was known as a jack of all trades and fixer of many things.

His greatest joys in life were his 18 Grandchildren and 19 Great Grandchildren that he assisted and was hands on in raising many of them. He was a kind and loving soul and took care of many. Dad had a big bark and if he didn't like something he wasn't shy in letting you know. His door was always open for everyone along with a hot pot of coffee, during the good times and the hard times. His home and love was a safe place to many.

Dad had the nickname of Mr. Jones for his carefree ways, thinking and ability to fix and repair anything. His heart was always bigger than his wallet.

Dad it will be the most difficult task to carry on without you, but we seek comfort in Wayne always let me come over and stay with Vanessa when I was a kid and I remembered he would always make us fresh homemade French fries and then we would sit at the table and he would talk to us and I cherish those moments I never had a grandpa so he was like one to me growing up. He always made me feel welcomed and loved even when we would keep him up all night! I'll miss him forever because he was a great soul and such a giving man.
