Zachary T Mendelkow

SEP 19, 1984 - MAR 13, 2020

Born in Ogden,Ut. Sept 19,1984. He Married Autumn Spears and had a one son, Gauge. Along with two step children, Mystic and Maverick. Zach adored his children. Zach had an ability to make people feel good when he was around them, he had a witty hilarious sense of humor that will be greatly missed. He is survived by his father (Tony) his mother (Connie) Brother (Garret) Brother (Zan). Sister (Shanae) Four nephews and four nieces and many cousins and family members. Zach loved climbing and trimming trees, he developed a great passion for trees! He had many demons that eventually took over and won. The Zach we all grew to know and love will be sorely missed. May Heavenly Father finally show you the love and tenderness that you need and deserve. You will be missed so badly. Until we meet again. Always smile and know there will be many empty Hearts.

On the calendar, 3 and a half years have passed. In my heart, we haven't moved a day forward. I think about you all the time. All the stories you and Gar would tell me, all the silly things you would constantly do.. Making yourself fart, burping the ABC's, the excitement in your eyes and voice when telling stories. I know you were hurting for so long, but your smile and hope for better never seemed to waiver. I miss you so much, big bro. I clench tight to the hope that I will see you again; maybe not in this life, but in the next. I love you.

You've been in my life for 18 years. Our relationship was explosive, but we remained friends no matter what. Even in hard times you always had a smile on your face. You were never still or quite, always talking about something. You truly lit up the room every time you walked in. I hope you found the peace you were so desperately looking for. I will forever love you. Until we meet again. Love, your chicken nugget ❤️
