Tyson Jeffrey Walsh

FEB 13, 1991 - NOV 1, 2020

Tyson Jeffery (TJ) Walsh

Our amazing outgoing son, Tyson Jeffery (TJ) Walsh, unexpectedly passed away peacefully in his sleep on November 1, 2020.

TJ first and foremost, loved his children Jett and Iris. They were his whole world, there isn't anything he wouldn't do for them. He loved anything that had to do with the outdoors and nature including all kinds of animals. He had so many pets including snakes, tarantulas, frogs, scorpions, bees, ducks, dogs, cats, turkeys and his beloved red-tailed hawk. He recently

He loved hunting, fishing, ice fishing with his family. He loved science and all the mysteries of the world. He never took anything at face value – he would read, research and learn about things. He was very knowledgeable, relentless and passionate about science. He loved to share what he had learned with anyone who would listen.

TJ was kind and loving and would give you the shirt off his back. He would be there for his friends and family if they needed him. He was currently attending UVU and wanted to get his degree in Biology. He has been working at Nestle for the last 8 years.

TJ is survived by his children Jett Michael Greenwood Walsh (10), and Iris Ivy Walsh (8). His parents: Randy and Tracy Dean, Siblings: Cyera (Mckay) Fox, Cheyenne Walsh, and Skyler Dean. His Father: Shawn & Angela Sabey. Siblings: Brandi Sabey, Zack Sabey, Matthew Sabey, Ceinna Sabey, Bayley Sabey, Aryal Sabey, Halley Sabey. His nephews & nieces: Anaka, Ryder, Kayvin, Tyler, Wyatt and Aurora. His grandparents: Steve & Gloria Nicholes and Jeff & Karry Batchelor and Lane Dean, Larry & Connie Stagg. He was preceded in death by his Uncles, Michael Batchelor, Tom Maxfield and Rick Maxfield.

He was annoying at times but I am going to miss his childish acts. He was a good and friendly man. And he will be greatly missed by all who knew him. I don't know if anyone could ever help with my problems like he always did. He was always there when I needed him. Well, my friend Rest In Peace till we meet again on the other side of the veil.
