Stacie Wahlstrom

MAR 2, 1980 - NOV 4, 2020

Stacie Wahlstrom (40) passed away at home peacefully in her sleep on November 4th, 2020. Stacie was born on March 2nd, 1980, in Ogden Utah to Carol (Crezee) Wahlstrom and Dale Eugene Wahlstrom, she was the second born of four daughters. Stacie grew up in Sunset, where she made many lifelong friends and memories.

On January 4th, 2007, Stacie gave birth to her handsome boy, JaSai Eugene Wahlstrom (Nugget) who has grown up to be her best friend. They shared a love that you've never seen before. She was his queen and they were each other's rock.

Stacie made a presence in any room she entered. She was creative and organized, yet full of chaos, feisty and fierce, yet sensitive and caring, loud and crazy, yet quiet and calm, just like the perfect storm. She enjoyed poetry, painting, crafting, and repurposing anything into artful décor. She loved baking, and mastered her Thanksgiving pies, football (49ers), all music and would often tell others, "listen to the words", dancing, camping, being with family and friends, but also valued her quiet time at home.

Stacie is survived by her son, JaSai, and her "huckleberry" David Nelson, her parents Dale (Karen) Wahlstrom, Carol (Shaun) Wahlstrom, siblings Jaimi (Samuel) Reza, Francie (Tyler) Wees, and Erin (Kevin) Kelson, as well as her special nieces and nephews: Talia, Hailey, Miya, Anyssa, Kaden, Abigail, Amelia, Nikolas, Briella, Gabriel, and her great nephew Kymani, and grandfather George F. Torjussen.

She is preceded in death by her grandparents, Frank and Thelma Crezee, grandmother (who she shared a special bond with) Thelma K. Wahlstrom, and nephew Hunter Kelson.

Family and friends are welcome to a memorial open house at Premier Funeral Home 5335 South 1950 West Roy, Utah, on Saturday, November 14th, 2020 between 10am-12pm. Due to COVID-19 guidelines, masks are required.
