Aaron Paul Lindhardt

OCT 26, 1980 - DEC 20, 2020

Aaron Paul Lindhardt died peacefully of natural causes on 20 December 2020 at his home in Orem. He was born 26 October 1980 in Provo, Utah.

Aaron leaves us with the memory of the sparkle in his eye and infectious smile that could light up any room. If you knew Aaron, your life was better for it. He was blessed with such a kind heart.

He was a fun-loving, active, creative child and laughed easily. He was passionate about sports and excelled in several. His coaches not only loved his athleticism, but his coachability.

Aaron's most cherished relationship was with his Savior. He prayed continuously. He prayed his way home. He was joyously received and his burdened heart given a much needed rest.

Aaron was a devoted son and brother. He is survived by Marian Bagley Castleberry (mother), Paul Joel Lindhardt (father), Jeffrey Lee Beddoes (brother), Sarah Olivia Castleberry (sister), and Ian Jared Lindhardt (brother). Also, many loving extended family members and friends.

May we express our deepest gratitude to the physicians, nurses and staff who developed relationships with Aaron and genuinely cared for him.

Due to Covid-19 restrictions, services to honor Aaron will be held at a later date. Condolences and memories may be sent to www.premierfuneral.com.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Best Friends Animal Sanctuary or a charity of your choice.

I have sweet memories of Aaron. I have very fond memories of Aaron and Shaun when they were together. It melted my heart to see Aaron and Shaun be like best friends when they were around each other at our Anderson's Family Reunions and other family functions. They truly enjoyed each other's company. My dad, Aaron's Uncle Shirl loved Aaron. I liked watching them in conversation at our family get togethers. I know Uncle Shirl thought the world of Aaron. Aaron had the sweetest spirit. Aaron had an affectionate smile that indicating to a person how happy he was to see you. His beaming smile would radiate every room and brighten your day. He was always a sharp dresser. He will be greatly missed by all that knew and loved him.
