Steven A Blanke

MAR 25, 1948 - DEC 4, 2020

Steven A. Blanke passed away on December 4, 2020 after a long battle with cancer. He was the only son of Arnold and Ruby Blanke. He was the brother to Judy, Patsy and Sherrie (Bob), uncle to Brent Jr. (deceased), Carrie (Travis), Anthony (Jeff), Eric Andrea, and Bobby (Melissa).

Steven was an excellent guitarist, playing lead guitar in many bands, USO tours and in Nashville, Tenn. Our favorite memories are those of our dad and Steven playing their guitars for hours entertaining family and friends.

Steven is survived by his mother Ruby, his sisters Judy, Sherrie (Bob), his nieces, Carrie (Travis), Andrea, nephews, Anthony (Jeff), Eric, Bobby (Melissa).

Preceded in death by his father Arnold, sister Patsy, brother-in-law Brent and nephew Brent Jr.

At Steven's request, no services will be held.

Special thanks to LeAnna from Rocky Mountain Hospice.

This guy was like my big brother. We played in bands together for many years all over the west. We even did an album together. Parted ways back in 82. He called me in 85 to see if I'd join up to go play again but I was raising my family. I've been trying to find him for quite a while so we could catch up. Dang, now I find out he passed the day after my bday. I would have loved to spend at least an hour with him talking about old times. Rest in peace, old road pal. All my love and best wishes to the family. ...Stormy Durell

I will always have memories of Steve taking me fishing, the hours of nintendo playing, and will always be impressed by his ability to solve the rubix cube in record time. Steve was always so kind and loving and will never be forgotten by our family. Our love and prayers to the Blanke family. -Shane Brown and Family
