For over 45 years, Angela inspired audiences with her voice and passion for empowering others to live their dreams. She was very active in her local church and she was quick to help in many ways. Her passions included leading praise & worship teams, singing solos, assisting with children's church, and directing special concerts and events.

Angela's love of people extended to the local community, state and national levels. In 2009, she organized Keep The Dream Alive (KTDA) Summer Camp which hosted 110 kids who were motivated and empowered by various actors, singers, professionals and public figures.
